It is hereby agreed by and between the parent/guardian and the Kid's Day Program in consideration of their mutual promise as follows:

1. That the term and conditions set forth in the PARENT HANDBOOK issued by the Kid's Day Program, a copy of which was furnished to the parent/guardian at or before the signing of this contract, are incorporated by reference into this contract and the parties agree to be bound by them.
2. That the child named on this enrollment application is hereby enrolled in Kid's Day Program (as long as registration fee and immunization record is included) and enrollment shall be considered for the full term from August 2010 through May 2011.
3. That in the event of an emergency to the child, every effort will be made to contact the parent/guardian or other adults whose names have been given to the Kid's Day Program as persons to be contacted under these circumstances. Whenever reasonably possible, contact will be made with such an adult before Kid's Day Program seeks medical treatment for the child. If this is not reasonably possible, the Kid's Day Program will make every reasonable effort to arrange medical treatment for the child by the doctor/health facility whose names have been give to the Kid's Day Program to be contacted under these circumstances. If neither of these is reasonably possible, the Kid's Day Program will arrange for whatever treatment seems necessary and appropriate to be performed by whomever the Kid's Day Program selects, and the parent/guardian hereby authorizes such treatment and agrees to pay its cost. The reasonable decision of the Kid's Day Program is binding upon the parent/guardian, the child and everyone who might seek redress through them on their behalf.

KID'S DAY PROGRAM BEHAVIORAL GUIDANCE POLICY

When a child is not obeying or is disrupting the class, the following steps of behavioral guidance will be taken:

1. The child is talked with privately by the teacher to make sure he or she understands the rules for proper classroom behavior.
2. If improper behavior persists, the child is separated from the other children for a period of "time out" not to exceed one (1) minute per year of the child's age. This will allow the child some time to think about his or her actions and to adjust their behavior accordingly. We do not use a "time out" period for children aged two and under.
3. If improper behavior still persists, the child will be taken to the director's office. The director will talk with the child to explain and guide in proper behavior. The child will then be returned to the classroom. All director involved behavior guidance is documented in the child's file.
4. If improper behavior persists beyond this point, the parent will be consulted by the director to enlist their assistance in guiding the child. The situation will be discussed respectfully and privately with the parent.
5. If all efforts have been made to correct negative behavior by staff and parents, and a child's behavior is a safety or emotional threat to other children and staff, the child will be dismissed from the program.

Very seldom, if ever, are all of these steps of behavioral guidance necessary but they will be carried out, if needed, so that the child and the whole class can have a happy, safe, and productive experience.

Kid's Day Program is required to provide our behavioral guidance policy to each child's parent(s) at the time of enrollment and maintain a signed copy in your child's file.

By signing below, I agree that I have read and understand Kid's Day Program's Behavioral Guidance Policy and have received a copy with my child's enrollment handbook.
